

LAURA & RYAN

Laura Molony and Ryan Morgan
May 17, 2014

How They Met/Got Engaged: Ryan Morgan and Laura Molony met at a mutual friend's house in the fall of 2007. Five years later, he proposed to her on her family's boat on Lake Martin.

The Dress: Laura wore The Spring dress by Lela Rose. With just the right amount of lace on the bodice and the capped sleeves, Laura says it was exactly what she was looking for.

The Bridesmaid Dresses and Groom's/Groomsmen Attire: The bridesmaids wore long, strapless dresses in the color Icelandic. The groom and his groomsmen wore navy suits. The groom wore a white silk tie, and the groomsmen wore gray ties.

The Ceremony: The ceremony took place on the golf course at Willow Point Golf & Country Club on Lake Martin. Holly Carlisle of Rosegolden Flowers created the floral arrangements.

A string trio provided music during the ceremony. Ben Alford, an Episcopal priest and cousin to the mother of the bride, officiated. Ryan's second cousin, Kate Jackson, 9, did the reading.

The Reception: SpringHouse restaurant was decorated with floral arrangements and outdoor lighting for the reception. SpringHouse prepared mini pork belly biscuits with seasonal jam, shrimp and grits, beef tenderloin and a twice baked potato buffet for guests.

Their signature drink was a Salty Dog. Cocktail napkins with silhouettes of the couple's four family dogs were created by Mary Baugh with Marlee Ami.

The Aaron Blades Band provided live entertainment.

The Cakes: The couple opted for one cake. It was a French vanilla almond cake with buttercream and cream cheese icing fillings. Ferns were incorporated into the design. Peonies and lavender were added to the greenery.

Where are they now? After a honeymoon trip to Maui, the couple lives in Birmingham.
